Shylock lost a lot of things throughout the play He lost his servant Launcelot, who hated the Jews and instead went to work for Bassanio. Portias two suitors who chose the coffin incorrectly took the opportunity to marry Portia because of their material views. Mercy and justiceM a small amount of mercy was shown by Antonio to Shylock when he allowed Shylock to keep half of his assets. However, Antonio does not say that in doing this Shylock must become a Christian and leave his fortune to Jessica and Lorenzo. This shows that Antonio is not as merciful as we thought. The Duke was merciful when he allowed Shylock to live his life. The Duke seemed biased and told Shylock 'He will do this, or else I recant the forgiveness that I finally pronounced here.' In the courtroom Portia gave a speech to Shylock persuading him to give mercy to Antonio.In this she said ' The quality of mercy is not stress'd; It falls like a gentle rain from heaven on the place below: it is twice blessed: It blesses the giveer and he takes it.'This means that mercy is really not difficult to show and it is a gift given from heaven. 'Will confiscate half of his goods; the other half comes to the state's medd treasury.' suggests that now Portia won't even give Shylock her money and she won't let him back out now. She won't even give Shylock any mercy after having asked him to give mercy. FriendshipGratiano and Bassanio are willing to help Lorenzo in his plan to flee with Jessica.Lorenzo is shown to be a trusted friend as Portia leaves him in charge of real estate while she was away. Hate/racial prejudice Most of these topics revolve around hate displays between Christians and Jews.Antonio shows hate and racial prejudice against Shylock because Shylock is a Jewish person. Shylock hated Christians because of the way they abused him. Because of this, he wants a pound of Antonios meat to try to kill him and and take revenge on me. He also hated Jews because they lend free interest money and therefore they took away his business. He told Antonio, 'You call me a false believe' and 'spit on my Jewish gaberdine'.This shows disrespect between the two religions and Antonio doesn't seem to regret having done any of these. Let the fish bait go up; if it will eat nothing else, it will eat my revenge ??? is one of many mainstream words ? Merchant of Venice? by William Shakespeare. This is one of those memorable lines as it is the first line from Shylock's key speech based on revenge. I'm going to go into this depth. reactions on key topics that will include the conflict between justice and mercy and what is the contrast of love and hate. In general, they help us to understand in detail about the characters. In addition, I will be describing many other features from the play such as key speeches by Portia and Shylock, setting and characterisation. ? Merchant of Venice? is a play that focuses on two main storylines. First of all there is Shylock's plot, as he is on a mission for a pound of meat from Antonio. However, Portia came and saved the day. There is also another conspiracy around Portia involving three coffins and her marriage. In Shakespeare's? Merchant of Venice? he explored many topics but the main one in my view was the conflict between justice and mercy. As in Shylock's key speech, where he is placing a lot of emphasis on revenge using rhetorical questions aimed at him as a Jewish person. Shylock expressed his hatred and outrage towards Antonio in his speech as all his feelings that he had to suppress over the years have now exploded to the surface.... read more. Shylock is a Jewish lender, and for these two reasons he is the most disliked and hated in the plot. Throughout the plot Shylock is often associated with demonic or animal images. ? An in humanity miserly, incapable of pity, emptiness and emptiness from any dram of mercy. ? This is when the Duke described Shylock as not human and would only show a small measure of mercy. Also, in Shylock's keynote speech - Is the Duke correct? as he shows no mercy whatso since then ever to Antonio as he thinks revenge is more important than mercy. However, at the end of the conspiracy Shylock doesn't get his meat pound or his three thousand ducats back. As a matter of fact, he signed all of which he owned more to Jessica and Lorenzo, and he must also promise to become a Christian. By this point Shylock had lost everything and was completely defeated. Then has Portia been an important character in? Merchant of Venice? Portia was a very intelligent and beautiful woman who loved Bassanio, however, her father planned to experiment with three coffins and whoever chose the correct coffin was allowed to marry Portia. She then dress up as a lawyer in the courtroom and save Antonio's life. At the end of the play Portia is happy when she and Bassanio ?live happily ever after.? One of the central themes in ? Merchant of Venice? is the contrast between love and hate.... read more. Also on the golden coffin the words say, ? Whoever chooses me will achieve what many men desire.? This suggests that Portia's father had an opinion that the man did not deserve Portia's love. However, he placed the image of Portia in the least anticipated coffin; This is going to be a financial coffin. The inscription on this coffin reads, ?who chooseth me must give and hazard all the hath.? He says here that if you choose this coffin, you must come over and put up with what may ever come way with Portia, this may put some men out picking it up because it sounds negative and so does the fact that in the lead coffin. So overall, Portia's father didn't go for the obvious he went for the little clarity that's what superficiality is all about. In my opinion to conclude the question that I chose the main topic is the conflict between justice and mercy for various reasons. I will briefly state. First of all Portia is one of the protagonists, her key speech is based on mercy. Then, if you compare that to Shylock, another protagonist, his speech is based on revenge. So these two most famous speeches are based on the main theme. Also at the end of the play, in my opinion Shylock deserved what he got so justice was served. Justice and mercy are also relevant in today's society because the quality of mercy is not death. It is not dead as people still believe that showing mercy to others still deserves praise and should be respected. KerrGibson. read more.
